

Distinguished Daughters of Pennsylvania

Bibiana Boerio, President

January 17, 2023

Dear Colleague:

I am pleased to invite your organization to submit a nomination for a woman to be recognized as a 2023 Distinguished Daughter of Pennsylvania. I ask that you NOT notify the nominee that you are recommending her as this is a confidential process until nominees are finalized after review with the DDPA and the Governor.

In 1949, Governor James H. Duff began the tradition of designating living women from across the Commonwealth as Distinguished Daughters. Since then, 14 Governors have named almost 550 women to this exclusive group. Now more than ever, it is important to acknowledge the accomplishments of women in Pennsylvania who have weathered several years of professional, personal and civic challenges.

In this 75th year of DDPA, we hope to continue to recognize the impressive talented, dedicated, and influential women from every part of the Commonwealth who have made significant, positive impacts in their communities, their Commonwealth and/or their country. Those selected to receive this honor are nominated annually by public-minded non-profit Pennsylvania-based organizations such as yours. Women recognized as Distinguished Daughters have had successful careers in areas such as

*Architects Artists Athletes Business Executives Civic Leaders Educators Entrepreneurs
Environmentalists Government Officials Historic Preservationists Judges Journalists Lawyers
Librarians Nurses Philanthropists Physicians Poets Researchers Social Activists Writers*

Traditionally, in the Fall, the Governor and First Lady host an Annual Presentation Luncheon at the Governor's Residence where new Distinguished Daughters are recognized and receive their awards.

Please complete and submit a Nomination Form by accessing www.distinguisheddaughtersofpa.org and click on "NOMINATIONS". Please note that you must submit the Nomination form electronically by March 15, 2023. You may also include a cover letter and up to two letters of support. This is a secure site and your nomination will remain confidential.

Enclosed is a description of "Distinguished Daughters Organization and Nomination Process Rules". If you have any questions, please contact me, the chairperson of your geographic region listed below, or Vicki Flohr, at 717-418-2249.
